Exercising Penguin

I'm fulfilling my new year's resolution pretty well.

I can tell how much my attitude has changed since last year.

I used to like a very thin girly body before.

However, now I love o fit, healthy and o body with o bit of muscle.

Throughout the last year,
I've got more exercise equipment.

And I've got more familiar with the strange work out names.

Then one day,
I messaged with my siste r while I was doing my exercises.

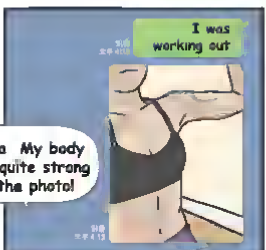
And I decided to send her a photo of me to show her what I was doing

I strengthened the whole of my body and took some photos, and sent them to her.



I guess, as the photo changed my 3D image to 2D, my body looked nicer than actually it was in real life. So I felt pretty good.

My sister sent me this and didn't send anything for a while

But,

..no sooner,
I received many messages
from her in a row.

The younger sister was puzzled.

And the older sister was too.
